The Gospel Reading today brings out the idea of salvation with another sign or image, namely, that of the shepherd tending his flock. As suggested in the First Reading, do not turn somewhere else, to a hired hand, who lets you down when you need help most.

The Lord Jesus knows you and is concerned. He laid down his life for you. Turn to him in prayer and meditative encounter in your Bible and you will find peace of mind.

-St. Joseph Missal, John 10:11-18

2nd Collection - April 27/28
Catholic Home Mission

Mission dioceses are not found only in faraway locations overseas. They also exist here at home, throughout the United States and its territories. These are dioceses that have small Catholic populations dispersed over a wide geographic territory, experience economic hardships caused by loss of industries, or have diminishing populations because of migration from rural to urban areas. For all these reasons, mission dioceses need financial help from Catholic Home Missions to support their ministries.

When you participate in the annual Catholic Home Missions Appeal you make possible the development of priestly vocations in Superior and more than 70 other dioceses throughout the United States and its territories.

Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation. - Mk 16:15

Sunday, April 21 - World Day of Prayer for Vocations

"Priests have received a power which God has given neither to angels nor to archangels. It was said to them: 'Whatsoever you shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatsoever you shall loose, shall be loosed.' Temporal rulers have indeed the power of binding; but they can only bind the body. Priests, in contrast, can bind with a bond which pertains to the soul itself and transcends the very heavens. Did [God] not give them all the powers of heaven?...What greater power is there than this? The Father has given all judgment to the Son. And now I see the Son placing all this power in the hands of men. They are raised to this dignity as if they were already gathered up to heaven." St. John Chrysostom

"If I were to meet a priest and an angel, I should salute the priest before I saluted the angel. The latter is the friend of God but the priest holds His place. St. John Vianney, patron saint of parish priests

"The power of the priest, is the power of the Divine Person; for the transubstantiation of the bread requires as much power as the creation of the world." St. Bernardine of Siena

What a great reminder it is to reflect on the gift of our Priest. Father Peter's birthday is May 4th, & his ordination date is 5-30-15. Please say a prayer of Thanksgiving for the gift of Father Peter.
