Sixth Sunday of Easter

In today's gospel reading, Jesus speaks of having chosen and befriended all who have remained with him. The offer of friendship to disciples is part of a chain of love that begins with the Father, whose love is poured out in the self-gift that is Jesus, who offers friendship to all. Jesus then tells his friends how to keep that chain unbroken: pay the love forward to others, befriending them in the way that he has done for them. -Living Liturgy

Dear Parishioners,

I would like to express my gratitude for the work that Brian Kloempken has done in our parishes over the past 16 months. His love for the faith and passion for evangelization and relational ministry has helped us restart our Altar Server programs, enhanced our youth programming, and brought many men together through men's ministry. In the near future, Brian will be leaving his position here to take a full-time job. We are tremendously grateful for his service and pray for continued success in his future endeavors.

Brian's departure means we are hiring a new Assistant Director of Discipleship and Evangelization. If you or someone you know are interested in this role, please email Jamie at administrator@iccwatertown.org.

-Father Peter Hughes

"Seeking a faith-filled, outgoing, and skilled Assistant Director of Discipleship and Evangelization. Part time (20-25 hours per week). Assist in developing the parish discipleship mission and formation activities at Immaculate Conception and St. Boniface with special focus on Sacrament preparation, youth formation, and adult formation."

Thank You for welcoming me and for joining me in serving God and his church over the past year. I'm sorry that my time here has been short, but it has been blessed. So many of you have been very generous in your service to the Lord. During these times I have gotten to share in God's grace and in many great conversations. I'm grateful for the laughs, for the times of prayer and for hearing about the ways the Holy Spirit is moving.

I have a few options for full-time employment and I'm excited about these new opportunities. In the meantime, I will be working on the farm and helping with some of the construction projects at ICC.

"The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you." 2 Corinthians 13:14

-Brian Kloempken
