Dear Friends,

Merry Christmas! I hope you had a blessed season of Advent in preparing your hearts for this wonderful feast, where we recognize that Jesus came not only at Christmas, but that He desires to encounter us every day of our lives and to fill us with hope! May this new year bring deeper moments of encountering Love Incarnate and a deeper growth in your faith. And may God bless you and your families with His abundance!

In Christ,

Fr. Peter Hughes

Faith Formation & Happenings

Dear Brother and Sisters in Christ,
 At this time of year, as we prepare to celebrate the coming of our Lord to this earth as a Child and Savior Of The World, may our hearts be open and welcome him into our lives. As he came as a child, we need to remember we are all his children whom he loves more than we can ever imagine. He wants us to have a childlike trust in him knowing he is always with us in every aspect of our lives. Make room in your heart and home for the Lord this Christmas and always. Allowing him to be a bigger part of your life will fill you with Joy, an everlasting Joy, that only Christ can bring. May our Lord bless you and your family this Christmas and New Year.

Deacon Patrick Kirsch
